

Weather-Ready Nation is...

You and Your Community

Building a Weather-Ready Nation requires the action of every person and community. You can do your part to save lives and livelihoods by staying informed and informing others when severe weather threatens. Creating a disaster supplies kit and making a plan are also key components of building a Weather-Ready Nation.

